

XM Satelite should enjoy the same rights as any other broadcast station. In fact, more so, since they are on a subscription basis and should be allowed to air what they want, when they want.